Dr. Sprague Goes to Stockton

Dr. Sprague left Sunday last for Stockton, where he will take charge of Dr. Hammond's practice for the ensuing two months, while the physician is away on a vacation tour to Europe. Dr. A. P. Griffin will have charge of Dr. Sprague's practice here during his absence. The doctor's family will remain in Jackson in the meantime.

LOCAL SHOW FOR TO-NIGHT

Classic Selections and Large Program to be Rendered

A musical extravaganza entitled "A Night of Laughs," will be given by the Ladies Guild of the Jackson Episcopal church to-night and to-morrow night. The entertainment is under the direction of Harry Ennis. Fifty people from Jackson's younger set are in the cast, and thirty full numbers will be given on the program.

Several classic selections are listed and much hard rehearsing has been gone over. This will of course warrant a fair entertainment. We publish a full program on page 4 which describes the exact character of the show.

The manager has arranged to make a tour to Mokelumne Hill, Amador and Sutter Creek with his troupe showing in each town.

New Real Estate Office

Burt McCoy, a real estate man from Berkeley, has been here this week. He is contemplating establishing a real estate office in Jackson, dealing in county lands, city lots, etc. There is an opening for such business in Amador county. We need an energetic real estate man to push the claims of our agricultural, mining and other resources.

LOST.—Between Jackson and Sutter Creek, cravatette overcoat and long brown sweater. Finder will return to W. F. Detert, and receive reward.

Marriage Licenses

A marriage license was issued in Sacramento early this week, authorizing the wedding of Walter Sherman Stimpson of Michigan Bar, Sacramento county, and Sophie Grelich, of Drytown, Amador county.

Halley's Comet and Eclipse a Pretty Sight.

Monday night the total eclipse of the moon and Halley's comet presented an astronomical attraction to the sight seers that has never been witnessed before by any living being. In Jackson the night was beautifully clear. The clouds that hung in the atmosphere the greater part of the day, all disappeared as night came on, leaving a clear sky for the observation of this striking phenomena. And everyone in town took advantage of the occasion to get to some point where comet and moon could be seen. As the face of the moon became obscured, and darkness gradually grew deeper, the comet loomed up a strikingly beautiful object. The nucleus was not brilliant as when seen in the eastern sky, still it beamed out as a star of the first magnitude, while its tail seemed to stretch over one fourth the firmament.

VISITS JACKSON GETS SURPRISE

Amador County Woman Astonished At Many Bargains In City

Following is a letter sent by an old resident living near Sutter Creek to a very dear cousin living near Volcano, and published by permission:

Sutter Creek, May 26, 1910.

Mrs Mary A. Williams:—
My dear cousin Mary: I think I owe it a duty to you to tell you about the wonderful town that Jackson is developing into.

VISIT TO RED FRONT.

You know how badly I needed a new dress, well maybe I was particular about my ideas of dress, but I was compelled to get a new gown for the party. And I couldn't get to the city, so I was fretting myself to death, when Jack, you know uncle Frank's boy, well he is spending the summer with us, as I was about to say, Jack called my attention to the Red Front ad, in the Amador Ledger, and I hitched up old Bell that same afternoon, and we drove into Jackson. Well, Mary, I could have bought a hundred dresses to suit me at the Red Front, I got a beautiful tan oriental silk pongee with large brown polkadots, it is simply a dream. Why you would hardly believe it, but you can buy this goods as low as 50 cents a yard. After leaving this store, I decided to take in the town, as I really needed many things.

AT MCGARY'S DRY GOODS STORE.

I will never forget an acquaintance I made in McGary's store. I just was mesmerized into the store through the tasty show window display I suppose,

INJURED MINERS GO TO ENGLAND

Rickard of Argonaut and Donahue of Zeila Leave Jackson

Sam Rickard and John Donahue left Jackson Wednesday morning bound for their native land, England. They were both miners, the first named employed at the Argonaut and the other at the Zeila mine. They were both crippled severely while engaged in the mine a few months ago. Rickard had the calf of one leg badly torn about three months ago. Grafting had to be resorted to in restoring the damage. He was laid up for many weeks, and at the time he left he was able to get around without a cane, but the effects of the injury are by no means entirely removed. A collection was taken up from the employees, amounting to over $250, and all expenses of surgery and nursing etc., were paid.

Donahue was treated in an equally liberal manner at the Zeila. His fellow workers came to his aid and contributed a shift for his benefit. The company also dealt with him liberally, and after reaching his destination he will have a snug balance. Donahue lost his right arm while at work in the stope. After firing a blast he and his partner went to the face, neglecting to see that the overhanging roof was sound. A rock fell on his right arm, crushing it so badly that it had to be amputated. The accident happened in March last. He returns to relatives in the old country.

Impressive Services for Memorial Day

Memorial day will be observed on Sunday, May 29, under the auspices of Rathbone Lodge, K. of P. The procession headed by the Jackson Military band and Uniform Rank, will form in front of the National hotel at 2 p. m., and march to the cemetery, where appropriate exercises will be held and graves decorated. All fraternal orders are invited to participate.

Memorial day exercises will be held next Sunday afternoon at lone, under the auspices of the Foresters. Superior Judge Fred V. Wood will deliver the oration on that occasion.

W. G. Snyder will deliver the address in Jackson next Sunday at the memorial day exercises under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias.

Funeral of A. Grillo.

The funeral of August Grillo was held last Sunday morning at Volcano. The body was conveyed from Jackson to that town Saturday evening, quite a number of citizens accompanying the remains to the deceased's former home. Services were conducted in the Catholic church at Volcano by Rev. Father Traveno. There was a very large attendance, citizens from every part of the county assembling to pay the last tribute of respect to the deceased, who was cut down in the prime of manhood, and zenith of his usefulness. The Native Sons of Excelsior parlor, of which parlor deceased was a member, was largely represented at the ceremonies. The floral offerings were numerous and of the most elaborate character in design and artistic effect. Amid the tears of the bereaved relatives, and the deeply felt sorrow of the community in general, the mortal clay was deposited in its final rest in the Volcano cemetery.

REPUBLICANS HOLD MEETING

Consider Vacancy On Board of Supervisors

A meeting of republican county central committee was held in the office of the chairman, Dr. A. M. Gall in Jackson on Tuesday evening. The principal object of the meeting was to consider the supervisor question in township three, a vacancy being created by the death of August Grillo. There were present at the meeting the following committeemen. Dr. A. M. Gall, W. D. Dufene, H. E. Kay, from township one, Clarence Bradshaw, township 3, and C. E. Richards, from township 4. Claud Wilson was represented by proxy held by C. Bradshaw.

L. H. Cook and F. B. Joyce were present from township 3, as aspirants for appointment to fill the vacancy in the supervisorship. It was also reported that W. E. Smith and Geo. Miller had also been mentioned in connection with that office.

The matter was discussed, the prevailing opinion being that it would be unwise for the committee as a whole to take any action at this time. The appointment concerned primarily the citizens of township 3, the rest of the county having merely an indirect interest therein. The voters of that township would be called upon to elect a supervisor at the general election in November; it would therefore be un-

Amador Limerock Company Meet.

The Amador Limerock Company was organized by the first meeting of stockholders held in Jackson Saturday evening. The articles of incorporation were filed with the secretary of state on the nineteenth, and the certificate of the secretary was received on the 20th. The directors meeting was called and officers were elected as follows: W. F. Detert, president, Jake Newman, vice president; W. H. Greenhalgh secretary; depository Bank of Amador county. The secretary was authorized to get all books and supplies needed for the business of the company. By-laws were adopted. It is the intention to issue preliminary certificates to stockholders paying their subscription by instalments; to be called in 10 per cent on delivery, and balance as may be ordered by the directors.

Italian Picnic To be Big Affair

All arrangements have been made for the celebration of the annual Italian picnic to be held at Fullen's Grove near Martell station on June 5, next. A game of ball will be played between Sutter Creek and Jackson and many other interesting fetures have been prepared. The committee in charge have the minor details all cared for and promise all who attend, a day of pleasure.

Cherries Plentiful.

Reports from farmers in the surrounding country say that cherries are abundant this year. Whole wagon loads are shipped to the small towns and sold and many shipped out to the county. The selling price on the streets are 5 cents per pound, and the demand for them seems to be good.

Next week the large white specie will be on the market. They are considered the best for canning, the supply is reported as being extremely good this year.

MINERS UNION GOES TO WALL

Membership Falls Away And Expenses Pile on Charter

Jackson Miner's Union, No. 115, W. F. M., is no more. After a stormy birth, and a struggling existence for seven or eight years, it was compelled by force of adverse conditions to surrender its charter, and close up its affairs. In the prime of its power there were 500 members in the organization, with other unions in the county, bringing up the strength of the federation members in Amador county to fully 1000. But after the first impetus of the movement leading to the strike about seven years ago, interest commenced to wane. The membership began to fall away, and the revenue to decline. The unions in other parts of the county, at Sutter Creek and Amador City, were disbanded several years ago, the one at Gwin mine was disrupted by the closing down of that mine several years ago. Jackson union held out to the last. This, however, was being slowly but surely sapped away by a combination of untoward circumstances. The last disastrous strike over the interpretation of the eight hour law, hastened the inevitable end.

The membership dropped off so rapidly, that the receipts were no longer able to meet the expenses. The payment of dues to disabled or sick member became uncertain, and this helped along the disorganization. At the last it is reported that less than 20 members were in good standing, and this was unequal to keep up dues to the parent organization, pay the secretary and rent of

New Band Master May Locate Here

Prof. T. F. Erman, a musician of exceptional ability is stopping in Jackson for a short time, looking over a field of work which is held out to him, by the local band. Erman was in charge of the band at the Preston Industrial School at lone, about 3 years ago, and since has been employed by a musical house in San Francisco as an agent, and to take care of piano tuning departments, etc. It is claimed that the professor is an artist in each instrument he teaches, which includes all the instruments in the band and orchestra. The band is asked to guarantee a nominal amount in order to warrant him to leave his present employment and come here. This we learn is not made possible as yet, owing to a lack of scholars to be had on piano, etc.

The fact that Jackson band needs a good band leader cannot be questioned if the organization wishes to be rated anywhere, and it is to be hoped some means will be found to warrant a teacher coming here.

MINE NEWS ALONG LODGE

Interesting Accounts of Mines Located In Amador Co.

Argonaut

This company paid its customary monthly dividend of five cents per share on the 20th, amounting to $10,000. The company is having surveys and maps made for the approaching trial of the suit brought by the Kennedy Extension for trespass and damages to the tune of $700,000. The date of trial is not yet fixed, but the defendant corporation is anxious to have the issue decided as early as possible. The 40 stamp mill is kept running steadily, the prospects of the mine are as bright as ever, the ore surrendering gold in gratifying quantity.

Keystone

The conditions at the Keystone mine remains about the same. The tie up by legal procedure looks as though it will mean sometime before the old standby will again turn its wheels and crush ore for bulion. The effect of the shutdown is greatly felt in Amador, as the small revenue paid into the town each month was badly needed.

South Eureka.

Everything above ground is a bustle and rush at this mine. The new mill under course of construction is fast nearing completion, and will be equipped with the very latest machinery. The new foundations for the powerful hoist, to be installed are finished and the machine is on the ground ready to be erected. Concrete pillars have been set upon which will rest the new gallow frame soon to be erected. The new frame will tower more than a hundred feet higher than the present scaffold.

The Mokelumne Hill correspondent of the Calaveras Citizen says:

It is confidently believed here that the Hamby mine will soon start up with Amador county capital.

Tam Has Ill Health

Wm. Tam left yesterday morning for San Francisco, to consult with physicians there in regard to his health. He is troubled with inflammatory rheumatism, causing stiffness and swelling of the joints. He may again take a course of treatment at the springs if the doctors so advise.

HOSPITAL GETS NEW PLUMBING

Building In Bad Need for Repairs at Present Underway

Much needed repairs at the county hospital are under way, and the institution will undergo a complete overhauling under the management of the present supt., D. J. Burke.

The pipes furnishing the institution with water were all found to be in the most filthy condition inside, and short pieces of inch pipes were so clogged with mud that it was impossible to see through them. Much of the piping was laid over 20 years ago and never cleaned, and conditions were so bad that but a small quantity of water could be forced into the building. The tanks in the toilets were half full of mud, and all badly leaking. These have also been relined and put in working order. The new piping is all being so placed as to be accessible for any emergency.

Many needed repairs have been allowed to go unfixed in order to keep running expenses down. This brings the present management under expense, which must be faced, and supt. Burke, is as far as can be noted, using excellent judgment in the work of replumbing the building. The contract has been let to George Weller, and special attention is paid to the repiping, by placing stop cocks etc. at places where they can be conveniently reached, instead of crawling along rafters under porches, as was heretofore the case. This makes the chances of a disaster by fire less possible, and insures better sanitary conditions in flushing pipes.

ENGLEBRIGHT FOR CONGRESS.

W. F. Englebright, who has represented the first district for the past four years, is a candidate for renomination on the republican ticket. Superior judge John L. Childs of Del Norte county is also announced as an aspirant for this office on the republican side. He is highly recommended by the press of his home county, and we have no doubt he is every way fitted for this position of responsibility and honor. Admitting all this, we see no reason why the republican party should make any change of candidate at this time. No flaw can be found in the official record of Englebright. He has "made good" in every sense of the phrase. Throughout the district his constituents are perfectly satisfied with his work. He has been a faithful servant in all things. Men of more brilliance in oratory have graced the halls of congress, but a more tireless worker for the interests of his district, or of sounder judgment in directing his efforts toward the desired end, than W. F. Englebright, has rarely if ever been seen in the national legislature. The passage of the bill creating a mining bureau was mainly due to his efforts. He has lost no opportunity to favor the mining interest, which is the paramount industry of his district. It is poor policy to change a congressman frequently. It takes one term to initiate a representative into the ways of congress, and a veteran member can accomplish far more for his district than a novice. The older states are fully alive to this fact. When they secure an able and faithful member of congress, they aim to keep him in office, knowing his influence as a rule grows with each successive term. This is a policy that California will do well to pattern after. We believe the voters of the first congressional district are content to let well enough alone, and will retain Englebright in the office he has filled so well for the past years.

The agitation for government ownership of public utilities is pressed to the extreme of absurdity. The conservation policy in behalf of which so much is being said and written, is the outgrowth of the government ownership question, and the drift of the whole matter is strongly toward socialism. To prevent the undue waste of national resources by the creation of vast forest reserves, where the spoiler's ax is not permitted except under strict protective regulations, is a move that no one can object to. But when mineral lands, water power sites, oil lands, are proposed to be withdrawn from private entry, with the object in view of the general government either renting these resources or opening and operating them for the benefit of the people, that seems like drifting far out to sea. Even in private enterprises along these lines the failures are many, while the successes are few. True, stupendous fortunes have been piled up by a few individuals in such enterprises, but if the truth were fully known, the unfortunate adventures outnumber the successes. This rule applies to every branch of business. The world is so constituted that it must ever remain so, because the inequality arises mainly from the differences in human nature. Now the government is but an aggregation of individuals. Its ability to score financial success must be measured by the capacity of the individuals charged with its management, with the powerful incentive of self-interest supplanted by a vague desire for the general welfare. It is contrary to all experience that governmental affairs be carried on with the same regard to economy as under private management. The notion that all the people will participate in the profits under government ownership, as against the few beneficiaries of privately owned concerns, is a dream of impracticable reformers.

We have reason to believe that a few voters have, from indifference or other causes, failed to get on the great register as party men, when as a matter of fact they are such. As the date for the primary election draws near, they will regret their action, inasmuch as unless rectified, they will be barred from the opportunity of helping their party friends by their vote. We believe that oversights of this kind may be corrected upon a proper showing within the prescribed time. We hope all republicans who are not registered as such, will make early application to have their party affiliation inserted in the record.

SCIENTIFIC MISCELLANY

Reported weekly for the Ledger.

Coasts Bent by Tides—National Bells Out of Tune—The Modern Fighting Blow—Diagnosis of Disease by Telephone—Cast-Iron Cutting Tools—A Novel Gas-Detector—The Compass as Helmsman—A Lobster's "Pearl"—Waste in Coal.

The tides, rainfall, annual snows and varying air pressure are constantly shifting enormous weights, and the earth's crust is bent and deformed under the strain to a degree that is just beginning to be appreciated. Some years ago Prof. John Milne, the veteran seismologist, showed that valleys are made wider by day than at night through the expansive action of the sun's heat. By seismographic records of the Shide observatory, he also proved that the Isle of Wight is alternately moved forward and backward by the tides, and that it is tilted up from the English Channel side at high water by the greater pressure on that side. His latest observations have been made with an extra-sensitive seismograph placed underground at Bidston Observatory near Liverpool, about two miles from the water. The records obtained with a photographic recorder prove that the sides of the basin are drawn closer together at every high tide by the sagging of the bed of the Irish Sea, and the action can actually be watched in the movement of the seismograph pendulum. A deflection of about one inch in 16 miles is produced by the weight of the tide off the mouth of the Mersey.

There is discord in the bells of the British houses of Parliament, and it is protested that this is not in keeping with the progress of science. In a late Royal Institution discussion, it was stated that, taking the nominal tones only, Big Ben and the third quarter bell are perfect octaves, as they should be. The first-quarter bell is 20 vibrations sharp; the second-quarter bell, 8 vibrations sharp; and the fourth-quarter bell is slightly flat, not more than 3 vibrations. The humming and the striking notes in all the bells are never less than a semitone—sometimes a whole tone—sharp or flat. In the last ten years England has made great improvement in the tuning of bells, and it is urged that the national bells—which could be tuned for 6,000—should be the very best.

The projectile of the 12-inch gun penetrates 22-inches of armor plate, and has pierced a 20-foot concrete wall heavily reinforced with steel beams.

The feeble sounds made by our body engine at work have much significance, and new importance has been given to them by the telephone-stethoscope, which the other day enabled a number of physicians in the Isle of Wight to listen to the heart-beats of a lady in London. In ordinary practice, tapping over the region and other near-at-hand observations are depended upon in addition to the indications of the stethoscope. The intensified sounds are made very distinctly, audible in the telephone, however, so that any irregularities are easily detected, and medical men have expressed the belief that with proper training of the ear it will become practical to diagnose heart disease at a distance. There is very little interference from extraneous noises. Other sounds can be transmitted, and it is probable that examinations of the lungs can be made as well as those of the heart. The new instrument gives the busy physician a means of watching a serious pneumonia or typhoid case without leaving his home, while country patients may be enabled to consult the heart specialists without the expense of a trip to the city.

The chilled iron produced by the process of E. A. Custer is reported to be a greivish iron and not the usual white chilled iron. It is made from common foundry iron—fairly high in silicon and low in sulphur and phosphorus—which is run direct from the foundry cupola into a chilled mold. In a few moments, as soon as solidified, it is quenched in water or other suitable bath. It is claimed that the casting makes a cutting tool of excellent quality. It is suggested that the chilling produces a fine and uniform structure, and that the quenching fixes it.

By means of a box divided by a partition of porous porcelain, Dr. A. Di Legge, an Italian physicist, indicates the presence of light or heavy gases in the air of mines, chemical works or submarines. When the air or gases in the two chambers have different densities, the gas diffusion from one compartment to the other is irregular, and the irregularity operates a small mercury index, which closes an electric contact and rings a bell. With two bells of different tone, the apparatus will indicate the side on which the disturbing cause is acting.

By the automatic electric mechanism of a Scotch mariner, Bailie J. C. Bogle of Falkirk, the compass is placed in control of the steering gear, and keeps a vessel on a predetermined course without aid from the helmsman. A finely-adjusted insulated lever, called the contrator, has one end connected to the compass card, and is so constructed that the opposite end may make contact with either of two terminals, or contrator rods connected with reversing electric motor that moves the steering apparatus. As the ship swerves from its direction, the contrator makes contact that completes an electric circuit giving port or starboard helm as may be required. The ordinary steering mechanism is retained unchanged, and the controlling attachment can be promptly disconnected when necessary, as when the vessel's course must be changed to avoid an obstruction or another vessel.

The "lobster pearl" found in a lobster at Orient Point, L. I., in July, 1907, has been preserved by Alfred Eno, of Jamaica, N. Y. It is a quarter of an inch in diameter, nearly round but not smooth, has a light buff color resembling the shell, and lacks the laminated structure of the ordinary pearl. Its luster is not greater than that of beeswax, while it has a waxy fracture—not brittle nor conchoidal. After careful examination, a New York dealer decided it to be really a kind of pearl, and as good a one as a lobster can be expected to make. Making a more scientific investigation, Prof. F. H. Herrick, of Western Reserve University, has reached a different conclusion. He finds that the substance was attached to the shell, and decides that it is in no sense a pearl, but was an ingrowth of the shell due to some injury.

The Illinois tests of Prof. S. W. Parr and W. F. Wheeler seem to have shown that the chief losses in the storage of large quantities of coal are due to breaking up into dust and to fires from spontaneous combustion. The maximum loss from weathering was not more than 3½ per cent in Illinois coal stored a year. Other experimenters have differed, and have reported a loss in calorific power from weathering as high as 25 per cent.

Dies as Result of Motorcycle Injuries

Oakland, May 9.—W. H. George, a well-known real estate dealer of this city, died from injuries sustained, when he was struck by a motorcycle at East Fourteenth street and Seminary avenue.

George was a native of Canada, and until he came west several years ago was connected with the railroads at Chicago. He leaves a widow and one daughter. He was the son-in-law of Judge W. S. Williams of 489 Orchard avenue and the brother-in-law of Rupert Whitehead and Robert Mills, both of this city. He was 51 years old and was a prominent Elk and Mason.

The deceased was well known throughout Amador county. He was formerly connected with the Realty Syndicate of Oakland and a number of Amador people were led to invest in the securities of that company through his instrumentality. Only a month ago he was in Jackson and other parts of the county, interviewing the holders of Realty Syndicate certificates for the purpose of exchanging these securities for stock in the Oakland Traction company.

Roseville Sends Its "Peeping Tom."

Roseville, Placer Co.—Roseville has a "Peeping Tom," but no sooner was his presence discovered than he was promptly apprehended, and sentenced to fifty days on the Auburn chain gang by Judge Clark.

The "Peeping Tom" was no less a personage than a negro bearing the name of Lindsay, and he was arrested following upon the complaint of a resident on Grant street that he was peering into her windows.

Lindsay was discovered in the act of peeping into a bathroom window, and was let off with a few well administered cuffs, but his arrest was not made until this morning. When hale before the court he pleaded guilty, and was promptly sentenced to fifty days.

Several months ago he was given a sentence of 100 days on the chain gang on a petty larceny charge, but was released on parole on the requests of friends.

DONT HIDE YOUR MONEY

The man who hides his money because he assumes to be afraid of banks forgets that it was the bank that perhaps made the prosperity possible which gave him his money making opportunities. Without the bank there would be no large commercial or business enterprises possible, salaries and wages would be low, and money making impossible. It is the bank in the exercise of its function in gathering together the funds of a community and putting them into active use that has brought prosperity.

To hide money is to hinder and hurt prosperity by restricting the circulation of money. Bring your money to the bank.

A Very Interesting Correspondence

On the 10th of the month I started on a journey to look at some mining property in the historic mining region of Forest Hill. A place that has poured its millions into the lap of the wealth of the nation in by gone days.

Strangely I was attracted to this spot through the invitation of one of my friends of 40 years ago. A man whom I had thought dead in the long lapse of time that has passed since I last saw him. He was one of the jurors that gave Alma Bell her freedom after killing her lover, Joe Ames. By this means, I found that he was still alive. I wrote him and received an answer soon. He invited me over to see him, and he wanted me to examine 840 acres of mineral land that he was lately interested in. I withheld his name for the essential reason, that I am going to give the readers of the Ledger a chance to read two black hand letters that were written to the gentleman while he was sitting on the jury. Sheriff McCuley received one also. But before proceeding with the letters, I will take up my journey which may interest many of the readers of the Ledger.

On the 11th day of this month I started from the Caldor sawmills, where they saw and ship 75,000 feet of lumber per day. A narrow-gauge railroad. 32 miles in length, runs from Diamond to the mill, and is owned by the same company. At 12.40 p. m. I seated myself in the caboose car that was headed for Diamond Springs. At 4.15 we were standing at the Southern Pacific depot in Diamond. Here I waited for two hours and a half for the passenger train to take me on to Placerville. The next morning just as dawn was breaking over the hills and all Placerville was asleep, I seated myself in the stage to take me on to Auburn. The driver was a young man of genial companionship, probably just out of his teens. He drove a spanking span of spirited horses that champed with fiery spirit against the bits. The road proved to be smooth, but it wound its way in a labyrinthine course over ridges, across flats, and past farmhouses scattered like birds through this mountainous country.

An hour brought us to the world-famous town of Coloma, where Marshall discovered gold in the old mill tailrace in 1848. The town of pioneer days has tumbled to ruins. A few old houses, torn and dilapidated, stand as the decaying relics of bygone days, when a cosmopolitan population coming from all points of the compass trod its streets.

Off to the left of the town a few hundred yards distant upon a low round knoll stands Marshall monument. The statue stands in solitude facing the old town, where the scorching sunshine of summer strikes upon it, and the winter winds whistle mournfully around the image of the man who in spirit has passed to that bourne from whence no traveler returns. He stands in a slightly stooping posture holding in his left hand an image of nuggets and pointing with his long attenuated finger to the gold he seems to be excited over. As I look upon him a reflection comes over me. Here is only the image of the man that stands as sentinel overlooking the American river and the historic town that has gone to decay. Sutter, the mainspring of all this discovery, has long since crossed the divide. The pioneers have wilted into insignificance. A few years more all of them will be a thing of the past. Then only can the native sons and daughters look to the monument as a relic of all this primitive greatness that has swept into an everlasting past.

In this town McFree was hung, who had killed, according to his dying statement upon the scaffold, 17 men. Here, too, Jeremiah E. Crain was hung for killing Susan Newingham, a young school girl, one of his pupils, whom he was madly in love with, although he had a wife and two baby girls in his faraway home in the east. He was a school teacher, and a man of more than ordinary ability. If I remember rightly, just prior to the killing he was a candidate on the Whig ticket for the legislature.

The stage stop here was of short duration, and soon we were whirling on our way down the American river on toward Lotus. This place is merely a hamlet. It might be named Store more appropriately for there are two stores and not more than half a dozen houses in sight. Here we got breakfast. The country from here on is rough and mountainous generally speaking. Like all other mountain country, it is interspersed with small plateaus upon which are neat farm houses.

We are now nearing Pilot Hill, a town that is old and dying with the pioneers. All around is their work of the pick and shovel. The graveyard on the little knoll to the left doubtless claims some of those sturdy miners of more than half a century ago. Here, too, a girl, weak and fragile, yet in her early teens, while picking flowers witnessed a deadly combat between two brothers, one of whom killed the other. This was in the early 50's.

The next place we came to was named Cool. I suppose it was named in winter, for the shale creeps from the soil in many places, and in summer I take it to be a place a few degrees cooler than the place we are told of in the Bible. Here too, is the junction of the wagon road, one leading to Auburn the other to Georgetown. We changed stages here, taking the one coming from Georgetown, while the other returns to Placerville. From Cool we descended the steep mountain side that lies on the south side of the middle fork of the American river. As we start down the grade the glistening waters shine upon the surface as a burished sheet of silver as it winds its way, snakelike, through the canyons below.

After a tedious ride we reach the old suspension bridge—the oldest perhaps in the state, for it has stood there in fact for more than half a century. Up the grade now we go where the suburbs of Auburn sit like ancient citadels upon the mountain top.

I now reproduce the Black Hand letters written to my old-time friend while he sat upon the jury verbatim et literatim. The superscription upon the envelope was thus: "Mr Juror for Miss Alma Bell, Auburn, Cal."

They were postmarked San Francisco, with immediate delivery stamp upon each. There is no date, no place designated from whence they came, only the postmark upon the envelope. My friend, who is a native of Canada, and American by adoption, honest in his convictions and firm in his determination, assured me the letter cut no figure in his verdict. I leave now the readers of the Ledger to form their own conclusions as to tenor of the warning epistles. In my next letter I will describe the mining country I went to visit and will also compare the stretch of country now occupied by well-regulated farms and fine villas, with Amador county, which ranks head and shoulders above it in my estimation.

Chas. S. Bell.

First Letter.

We let you know that if the Alma Bell don't get free so we kill you and we kill your partners every man who is against Alma Bell will be killed sooner or later. We go after you so long that you will be killed on the street like a dog but not only you but every man who is on our black list. No mercy to nobody who is against Alma Bell. Poor or disordered blood tells its own story in lowered vitality loss of energy, in skin eruptions, in rheumatic pains and in a pallid or sallow appearance of the complexion. J. F. Wilson, Dentist, Hours 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Phone—Office, Main 75; residence, black 394; Jackson.

I am prepared to go out as nurse to sick ladies in confinement. Mrs. E. S. Pitois, No. 73 E. Court street. m18
The splendid work of Chamberlain's stomach and liver tablets is daily coming to light. No such grand remedy for liver and bowel troubles was ever known before. Thousands bless them for curing constipation, sick headache, biliousness, jaundice and indigestion. Sold by all dealers.

Clothesline thieves are at work again. During Wednesday night, the line of Mrs. Lawrence Sanguinetti near the north Main street bridge was stripped of all the more valuable articles. These raiders are experts in dress goods. They seem to know what are worth packing off.

ANY LADY can easily make from $18.00 to $25.00 per week working for me quietly in her own home locality. This is a bonafide offer—one which will pay you to investigate, even if you can only spare two hours per day. No investment required. Turn your spare time into money. Write me at once for particulars. Address MARY E. TAYLOR, Box 30, Woman's Building, Joliet, Illinois.

Road and state poll taxes are now due and payable to the assessor, and will be delinquent in August. Pay up and avoid the penalty.

Pullman town site at Richmond, on which the Palace car shops are now being built. Lots are selling today from $250 at $5 per month, no interest. See Burt A. McCoy at the Globe hotel.

Assessor Jarvis will be in Jackson next Monday and thereafter for purpose of assessing property in this township.

John D. Rockfeller would go broke if he should spend his entire income trying to prepare a better medicine than Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy for diarrhoea, dysentery or bowel complaints. It is simply impossible, and so says every one that has used it. Sold by all dealers.

Burt A. McCoy, who is representing the Richmond Land Co., is stopping at the Globe. We understand he has the best investment in Richmond the Pullman townsite, where property will soon increase in value.

D. S. Mason and family have returned to their home in Jackson, after a 10 days visit to San Francisco, Berkeley, Oakland and Suisun.

Mrs. Jewell, mother of Mrs. Dave Hall of Jackson, and Henry and James Toop, died at her home near Volcano on Wednesday last, after a long illness.

Walter Corset, a young man well known in this city, was drowned in Nevada early this week.

It has come to our knowledge that interested parties are engaged in the contemptibly low business of endeavoring to extort pledges from patrons to withhold business from the Ledger. We propose to expose this scheme.

Worse than Bullets

Bullets have often caused less suffering to soldiers than the ezema L. W. Harriman Burlington, Me., got in the army, and suffered with, forty years. ## MAXIMS OF MARK TWAIN

Full of Homely Wit and of Deep and Good Wisdom

"These maxims are for the luring of youth toward high moral altitudes. The author did not gather them from practice but from observation. To be good is to be noble; but to show others how to be good is nobler and no trouble." Some of the other maxims read:

"Noise proves nothing. Often a hen who has merely laid an egg cackles as if she had laid an asteroid."

"Training is everything. The peach was once a bitter almond; cauliflower is nothing but a cabbage with a college education."

"The autocrat of Russia possesses more power than any other man in the earth; but he can not stop a sneeze."

"Habit is habit, and not to be flung out of the windows by any man, but coaxed downstairs a step at a time."

"One of the most striking differences between a cat and a lie is that a cat has only nine lives."

"When I reflect upon the number of disagreeable people who I know have gone to a better world, I am moved to lead a different life."

"The true southern watermelon is a boon apart and not to be mentioned with commoner things. It is chief of this world's luxuries, king by the grace of God over all the fruits of the earth. When one has tested it he knows what the angels eat. It was not a southern watermelon that Eve took; we know it because she repented."

"Be good and you will be lonesome."

"Few things are harder to put up with than the annoyance of a good example."

"It were not best that I should all think alike; it is difference of opinion that makes horse races."

"Even the clearest and most perfect circumstantial evidence is likely to be at fault, after all, and, therefore ought to be received with great caution. Take the case of any pencil sharpened by any woman; if you have witnesses, you will find she did it with a knife; but if you take simply the aspect of the pencil you will say she did it with her teeth."

"April 1. This is the day upon which we are reminded of what we are on the other 364."

"The English are mentioned in the bible; blessed are the meek for they shall inherit the earth."

"Adam and Eve had many adventures, but the principal one was that they escaped teething."

"There is no character, however good and fine, but it can be destroyed by ridicule, however poor and witless. Observe the ass for instance; his character is about perfect; he is the choicest spirit among all the humbler animals, yet see what ridicule has brought him to. Instead of feeling complimented when we are called an ass, we are left in doubt."

"Consider well the proportions of things. It is better to be a young June bug than an old bird of paradise."

"Why is it that we rejoice at a birth and grieve at a funeral? It is because we are not the person involved."

"All say, 'How hard it is to have to die'—strange complaint to come from the mouths of people who have to live."

"It is easy to find fault, if one has that disposition. There was once a man who, not being able to find any other fault with his coal, complained that there were too many prehistoric toads in it."

"When angry, count four; when very angry, swear."

"The holy passion of friendship is of so sweet and steady and loyal and enduring nature that it will last through a lifetime, if not asked to lend money."

"Classic," A book which people praise and don't read."

The man with a new idea is a crank until the idea succeeds."

Miner Receives

a Slight Injury

Arthur Jones was stuck on the head with a small rock while working in the Zeila mine yesterday morning. The injury was a superficial scalp wound, which did not interfere with his employment. He consulted Dr. Endicott, so as to prevent possible complications arising from the presence of foreign matter in the wound. After examination and dressing, he was told that there was no likelihood of danger from this source.

HOLD MEETING

wise for the whole committee to recommend any one for appointment; it was for them, if any action were to be taken, to simply indorse the choice of the people of that district.

Clarence Brashw, the committeeman for the district concerned thereupon, moved that the candidates for appointment be advised to circulate petitions in their respective interests for republican signatures in township 3; it being understood that the candidate receiving the strongest indorsement in the shape of signatures would receive the committee's indorsement also. This plan was satisfactory to all present.

Other matters relating to the approaching campaign were also talked of, incidentally.

The committee then adjourned to meet next Sunday, at which meeting a full attendance of the committee is requested.

It is expected that the petitions from the citizens of township three will then be presented in behalf of the several claimants for the vacancy. Also efforts will be made looking to securing desirable candidates for various county and township offices, for which aspirants are apparently slow in announcing themselves.

VISITS JACKSON GETS SURPRISE

and once inside everything was so up-to-date that I could have broke my pocket book without a sigh. I really wanted to buy a dainty blue silk cap, that I saw on display. It was just a trifle too elaborate for me, but Mrs. McGary, the lady whom I trust you will try to meet some day, soon fixed it exactly as I wanted it, and Mary, they have a plan under way here to induce new customers to come in, that surely ought to make many friends. The plan is to give a set of dishes away free every Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. You only purchase $1.00 worth of goods, and they give you a card with a certain time of the day stamped on it, and if the clock stops nearest the time stamped on your ticket you get the whole set of dishes entirely free. They don't raise prices on certain goods as some people might think, they value a good customer too much to cheat him, to pay another, this plan simply means they are sacrificing a certain amount of their profits to make friends.

AT BIERCE'S KOMFORT STORE.

Well I wandered into a shoe store next, and maybe it wasn't a cosy little room, and well stocked. Mr. Bierce is the manager, and is doing all he can in his business to boost the city. He carries an elegant line of shoes and my new $4.00 pair are certainly easy on my feet. I expect to use them for the next dance. I feel so graceful in them. You know what the Regal shoe is back east, well this store carries all sizes and at standard prices, so you can believe me when I say I'll never send below for any more shoes.

MYER'S GENTS' FURNISHINGS.

Jack stopped old Bell in front a gent's furnishing house managed by a man named Myers, and said he would go in just for a minute to price a pair of trousers. Well Mary, what Jack didn't buy, a man don't need. He got the trousers, a new suit of clothes and the most beautiful shirts he ever owned. Truly, he couldn't finish bragging about his bargains, and his suit is strictly the latest thing in cut and finish. Socks and handkerchiefs and what not, I all forgot. I wonder that more people don't try and follow Myer's footsteps, his business certainly must boom if he treats all as Jack says he was treated. You know Mary, that helps Jackson wonderfully, and it won't be long before the people know there is a Meyer's store in Jackson, and Amador county in California.

VELA AND PICCARDO.

Jack just felt like cutting loose and spending as much money as he could, and he halted the old horse in front a sporting goods house and went in to examine a rifle. Well he bought a magnificent gun, I fired it several times myself, and Jack is so jealous and peevish about it, that he don't want anyone to even look at it. And you have often heard of those keen kutter knives, well Jack bought one for each of his small cousins, and is going to mail 2 or 3 for presents, you know how much a child loves a knife, and Jack says he remembers how he felt over the first present of a knife which he received, these knives remember are strictly high grade, and were awarded gold medals at the world's fair, and with all that pedigree to them you can buy them as low as 25 cents. Now you know that is as cheap as any city store can sell them, and maybe you can't buy them for less than 35 cents in the city, as they carry cheaper grade, which they advertise for a quarter of a dollar.

PETER PICCARDO HARNESS SHOP

Poor old Bell, she didn't have a new harness for years, and the last one bought for her never fit and cost $30. You remember we shipped all the way to Kansas City for it. Well right across from the Jackson post office is a harness shop that certainly ought to carry a big trade. Why think of it, a $15 harness, honestly that is all we paid $15, and then a fat fellow that runs the place just laughed all over when he saw how astonished we were at this cheap harness, and he said, I'll tell you what I'll do, you try that harness, and if you don't like it bring it back and I'll make it good any way you want me to. Jack told him that was fair enough, and after a bit of fixing, the harness fit like one made for old Bell, who looks funny to everyone but ourselves, on account of her high hips. Why Piccardo told Jack that he sold one harness each day, the week previous, 6 harnesses in 6 days, and I think that means that Jackson is going some at that rate. Of course the man has a heavy expense, as his store room is heavily stocked with everything a man could want to furnish any team with, and he uses the best of material in his harness. You bet old Bell feels good herself

VISITS JACKSON FURNITURE CO.

You remember that old kitchen cabinet that you shipped from that Chicago catalogue, you remember how long it took you to get it up there, and then you had to ship it back because it was all smashed, well the Business Directory in the Ledger carries an ad for the Jackson furniture company, and thought I might as well pay that store a visit while in town, and see how near they came to city prices. Well Mary, believe me or not, I could buy that same kitchen cabinet here for $4.00 less than you paid for it in Chicago. Now this does not seem possible, but come here yourself and find out. I had 2 rooms that needed furnishing badly because I was always crowded when I had company, so I just made up my mind I would furnish them, and I did. Rugs, furniture pictures and all, and I could not be better pleased for goods nor prices, no matter where I bought it. You know Mary Mr White the proprietor has been working around furniture for nearly 40 years, and won't buy anything but what is strictly first grade, this beats mail order houses a mile.

LANGHORST JEWELRY STORE.

I wandered into a jewelry store to look for a clock that would please my ear and just as I opened the door the different clocks started to strike the eleventh hour. I could hardly believe it was so late, but my, the music those clocks made, I'll never forget after telling their time in the most sweet and soft tones, the sharp hoarse stroke, the busy clocks went on tick tocking while I made a purchase of one of the time pieces which I fell in deep love with, because of the rich mellow tone it had.

Sending best regards to all the folks, I am your loving Cousin.

Hilda.

P. S.—I am going over to Jackson next week, and if you can come down I will meet you at Cuneo's Dry Goods Store.

Mr and Mrs James Madonna went to Sutter Creek Saturday before last. Mr Madonna returned the next day, but Mrs Madonna remained to take a course of treatment at Dr. Goodman's sanitarium. —Prospect.

Last Thursday morning about 11:45 there was considerable excitement out at the county hospital. The matron, Mrs Dalton was scrubbing out the women's ward and was using the hose. In some manner the water was thrown on the electric switch causing the wires to "short" and set fire to the switch. A hurried call was put in on the telephone stated that the place was on fire. The power was turned off at the substation and things were soon straightened out. No damage except a burned switch. —Prospect.

Sterling & Wickham are running their cyanide plant on Mott's Gulch, West Point, working over tailings that have long since been abandoned as worthless. The parties tell me that they can work them to a good advance and only wish there were more of them, as it is their intention to buy and work all tailings from the mills in the vicinity. At present they have about 500 tons on hand. —Citizen.

The Newman mine near West Point, is owned and worked by B. Levaggi, our local merchant, who contemplates soon putting on a big force of men. At present there are about 400 tons of ore on the dump, and about 50 tons of a very high grade which will have to be taken to the smelters, as the assay value reaches up into the thousands. Good rock is being stoped out by a force of men. The mill and stopes are both full of good rock. The lower tunnel is being run on the vein, which is about three feet wide, and when the main ore shoot is tapped on the tunnel it will strike the shoot on the vein at a depth of about 800 feet. A good ten-stamp mill is on the mine. —Citizen.

Jackson Party Have Enjoyable Picnic

Last Sunday a party consisting of Miss Carrie Badaracco, Miss Mary Prosser, Miss M. E. McCaskey and Miss Julia Badaracco, drove to Clinton for a day's outing. Miss McCaskey, who is census enumerator for township 1, had Miss Carrie Badaracco interpret the information that could be gotten from the foreign element in that section for the census bureau.

Miss McCaskey expects to finish her work this week and says she had no trouble whatever in securing what information she asked for.

Miss McCaskey, census enumerator for township one for all the territory lying outside of the limits of the city of Jackson, was allowed ten days further time, in which to complete her census work. Owing to the fact that she was teaching school in Aetna district during the time originally allowed for census work and had to do the work outside of school hours, it was next to impossible to get through on schedule time. School in that district closed last week, and by devoting her entire time to census work, she will be able to complete her task in as thorough a manner as possible. Everything indicates that in this township the census will be reported fully with few omissions.

It appears that the efforts of Congressman Englebright of this district to secure the passage of a measure creating a mining bureau in the interior department is about to be crowned with success. This division will be in charge of a director with a salary of $8,000 a year. Much of the work of the geological survey will be turned over to the bureau, and provision is also made for a thorough investigation of the causes of many of the serious accidents that have recently occurred in the deep mines. The measure will supply long felt want in the mining sphere, and its passage is earnestly hoped for. —Angels Record.

Stiffened Bodies Found By Rescuing Party

Seward, Alaska.—Details of the loss of the codfishing schooner Stanley at Sanak Island have been brought to Steward by the mail steamer Dora.

When a rescue party reached the wreck the bodies of Captain Koshler and mates Bauers and William were found frozen stiff in the rigging. The cook was swept overboard and drowned. Five who survived—Seamen Hart, Legeer, Bjornsen, Kandi and Roberts—jumped overboard the day after the schooner went on the reef and were picked up by dories that put out from the shore.

The rescuer made valiant attempts to save the lives of the three men who were lashed to the rigging, but they were unsuccessful. Captain Koshler died just before the rescuers reached him.

The bodies were buried on Sanak Island and the survivors were taken to Unga.

The vessel and its cargo were destroyed, the loss being $30,000. In addition, the loss of the season's business will be heavy at several stations, which will be unable to operate owing to the loss of supplies aboard the schooner.

THT FINISH.

Great men have had wondrous and lengthy careers, Have thrilled us by actions sublime. Have written their deeds on the page of the years

And carved on tablets of time The record of striving and struggling and stress.

Of driving ahead till they drop— But this is the sum of the great and the less:

There's always a tombstone on top.

Through ages the sages have delved into lore

And sought for the secrets of life, Have traveled the paths that were traveled before,

Have pondered on peace and on strife, Yet after we study the work that they did,

Their musings and dreamings we top, Until at the last this one truth we find hid:

There's always a tombstone on top. Humanity struggles for wealth and for place,

It labors for silver and gold And when it has come to the end of the race

Must leave all it has in its hold. The ship may sail on and the wheels still may turn,

The throngs seek the store and the shop, But this is the lesson that all of us learn:

There's always a tombstone on top. Fair ladies have led in the ball and the court,

The belles and the beaux had their day; They smiled on through good and through evil report,

Content with their pomp and their sway. But where are they now? This we learn from the belle

And the roystering blade and the fop: The whole of life's story these few words will tell—

There's always a tombstone on top. 'Tis limned in the glittering bauble of fame,

'Tis breathed in the sight of defeat, 'Tis clicked in the dice that are thrown in the game,

'Tis seen in fair play or deceit; The rush and the struggle, the deed and the dream,

Must all at one tense moment stop. No matter what else in this world there may seem,

There's always a tombstone on top. —Chicago Post.

Silence!

The instinct of modesty natural to every woman is often a great hindrance to the cure of womanly diseases. Women shrink from the personal questions of the local physician which seem indelicate. The thought of examination is abhorrent to them, and so they endure in silence a condition of disease which surely progresses from bad to worse.

It has been Dr. Pierce's privilege to cure a great many women who have found a refuge for modesty in his offer of FREE consultation by letter. All correspondence is held as sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription restores and regulates the womanly functions, abolishes pain and builds up and puts the finishing touch of health on every weak woman who gives it a fair trial.

Scientist Tries to Prove Darwin's Theory
Philadelphia.—Dr. Edward Tyson Reichert, investigator and professor of psychology at the University of Pennsylvania has published his observations made in a series of experiments with blood crystals of animals and men, and has, he believes, a strong argument in favor of the Darwin theory of evolution.
His conclusions are based on a study of 2500 photomicrographic negatives. These negatives were obtained from the blood of virtually every species of animal.
Evolution observed from chemical standpoint is so vast in its possibilities that it will require the combined efforts of a hundred investigators working incessantly for several generations to complete the task, according to Dr. Reichert.
Not only will the experiments have an important bearing on the evolutionary theory, but the ability to distinguish by comparison of crystals between the different types of man will be of immense importance in the examination of blood in murder trials. By Dr. Reichert's method it is possible to establish definitely whether the blood is of man or animal, and to say with a degree of positiveness whether it is the blood of a negro or a white person.

Counterfeit Coins In Circulation.
Los Angeles—Counterfeit silver money believed to amount to thousands of dollars is in circulation here. Half and quarter dollars by the hundreds have been turned in by conductors on all the trolley lines, and the officers have observed that whenever the fare collectors took in the spurious coin in any particular section of the city, storekeepers there have also been victimized, indicating systematic operations by experts. When the town had been literally flooded with the worthless money, the smaller places were worked, and the interban trainmen began taking in the imitations, which are the best ever seen here.
Bulletins of warning have been issued by the railway officials, detectives placed on cars and the secret service operatives notified in vain. The bogus stream continues flowing in. The police believe they have traced the crooks to the Emeryville race track, where similar coins have been foisted on patrons of the racing game. The counterfeiters are supposed to have had quarters there.

Lion Fondles A Child
In Pittsburg a savage lion fondled the hand that a child thrust into his cage. Danger to a child is sometimes great when least regarded. Often it comes through colds, croup, and whooping cough. They slay thousands that Dr. King's New Discovery could have saved. "A few doses cured our baby of a very bad case of croup," writes Mrs George B. Davis, of Flat Rock, N. C., "We always give it to him when he takes cold. It is a wonderful medicine for babies." Best for coughs, colds, la-grippe, asthma, hemorrhages, weak lungs. 50c. $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guarantee by Spagnoli's drug store.

Sutter Creek Defeats Ione Base Ball Team
Sutter Creek defeated Ione last Sunday at a game of ball played on the Sutter Creek grounds, by a score of 13 to 11. The Sutter boys played a snappy game, and deserve the game by reason of clean ball playing.
Sutter Creek is doing some great playing, and will no doubt give Jackson a lively game at their next meet, at the Italian picnic.
Jackson's hand gave their regular Saturday evening concert, notwithstanding the fact that their leader was absent. The members turned out in full, and a big program was rendered in a most delightful manner.

News of Interest from Near-by Counties

Mr and Mrs James Madonna went to Sutter Creek Saturday before last. Mr Madonna returned the next day, but Mrs Madonna remained to take a course of treatment at Dr. Goodman's sanitarium. —Prospect.

Last Thursday morning about 11:45 there was considerable excitement out at the county hospital. The matron, Mrs Dalton was scrubbing out the women's ward and was using the hose. In some manner the water was thrown on the electric switch causing the wires to "short" and set fire to the switch. A hurried call was put in on the telephone stated that the place was on fire. The power was turned off at the substation and things were soon straightened out. No damage except a burned switch.—Prospect.

Sterling & Wickham are running their cyanide plant on Mott's Gulch, West Point, working over tailings that have long since been abandoned as worthless. The parties tell me that they can work them to a good advance and only wish there were more of them, as it is their intention to buy and work all tailings from the mills in the vicinity. At present they have about 500 tons on hand. —Citizen.

Harsh physics react, weaken the bowels, cause chronic constipation. Doan's regulates operate easily, tone the stomach, cure constipation. 25c. Ask your druggist for them.

The Newman mine near West Point, is owned and worked by B. Levaggi, our local merchant, who contemplates soon putting on a big force of men. At present there are about 400 tons of ore on the dump, and about 50 tons of a very high grade which will have to be taken to the smelters, as the assay value reaches up into the thousands. Good rock is being stoped out by a force of men. The mill and stopes are both full of good rock. The lower tunnel is being run on the vein, which is about three feet wide, and when the main ore shoot is tapped on the tunnel it will strike the shoot on the vein at a depth of about 800 feet. A good ten-stamp mill is on the mine.—Citizen.

Jackson Party Have Enjoyable Picnic

Last Sunday a party consisting of Miss Carrie Badaracco, Miss Mary Prosser, Miss M. E. McCaskey and Miss Julia Badaracco, drove to Clinton for a day's outing. Miss McCaskey, who is census enumerator for township 1, had Miss Carrie Badaracco interpret the information that could be gotten from the foreign element in that section for the census bureau.

Miss McCaskey expects to finish her work this week and says she had no trouble whatever in securing what information she asked for.

Miss McCaskey, census enumerator for township one for all the territory lying outside of the limits of the city of Jackson, was allowed ten days further time, in which to complete her census work. Owing to the fact that she was teaching school in Aetna district during the time originally allowed for census work and had to do the work outside of school hours, it was next to impossible to get through on schedule time. School in that district closed last week, and by devoting her entire time to census work, she will be able to complete her task in as thorough a manner as possible. Everything indicates that in this township the census will be reported fully with few omissions.

New Mining Bureau About to be Formed

It appears that the efforts of Congressman Englebright of this district to secure the passage of a measure creating a mining bureau in the interior department is about to be crowned with success. This division will be in charge of a director with a salary of $6,000 a year. Much of the work of the geological survey will be turned over to the bureau, and provision is also made for a thorough investigation of the causes of many of the serious accidents that have recently occurred in the deep mines. The measure will supply long felt want in the mining sphere, and its passage is earnestly hoped for.—Angels Record.

Deafness Can not be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars or any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best

Seward, Alaska.—Details of the loss of the codfishing schooner Stanley at Sanak Island have been brought to Steward by the mail steamer Dora.

When a rescue party reached the wreck the bodies of Captain Koshler and mates Bauers and William were found frozen stiff in the rigging. The cook was swept overboard and drowned. Five who survived—Seamen Hart, Leeger, Bjornsen, Kandi and Roberts—jumped overboard the day after the schooner went on the reef and were picked up by dories that put out from the shore.

The rescuer made valiant attempts to save the lives of the three men who were lashed to the rigging, but they were unsuccessful. Captain Koshler died just before the rescuers reached him.

The bodies were buried on Sanak Island and the survivors were taken to Unga.

The vessel and its cargo were destroyed, the loss being $30,000. In addition, the loss of the season's business will be heavy at several stations, which will be unable to operate owing to the loss of supplies aboard the schooner.

THE FINISH.

Great men have had wondrous and lengthy careers,

Have thrilled us by actions sublime. Have written their deeds on the page of the years

And carved on tablets of time The record of striving and struggling and stress,

Of driving ahead till they drop— But this is the sum of the great and the less:

There's always a tombstone on top.

Through ages the sages have delved into lore

And sought for the secrets of life. Have traveled the paths that were traveled before,

Have pondered on peace and on strife, Yet after we study the work that they did,

Their musings and dreamings we lope, Until at the last this one truth we find hid:

There's always a tombstone on top. Humanity struggles for wealth and for place,

It labors for silver and gold And when it has come to the end of the race

Must leave all it has in its hold. The ship may sail on and the wheels still may turn,

The throngs seek the store and the shop, But this is the lesson that all of us learn:

There's always a tombstone on top.

Fair ladies have led in the ball and the court,

The belles and the beaux had their day; They smiled on through good and through evil report,

Content with their pomp and their sway. But where are they now? This we learn from the belle

And the roystering blade and the fop: The whole of life's story these few words will tell—

There's always a tombstone on top.

'Tis limned in the glittering bauble of fame,

'Tis breathed in the sight of defeat, 'Tis clicked in the dice that are thrown in the game,

'Tis seen in fair play or deceit; The rush and the struggle, the deed and the dream,

Must all at one tense moment stop. No matter what else in this world there may seem,

There's always a tombstone on top. —Chicago Post.

Silence!

The instinct of modesty natural to every woman is often a great hindrance to the cure of womanly diseases. Women shrink from the personal questions of the local physician which seem indelicate. The thought of examination is abhorrent to them, and so they endure in silence a condition of disease which surely progresses from bad to worse.

It has been Dr. Pierce's privilege to cure a great many women who have found a refuge for modesty in his offer of FREE consultation by letter. All correspondence is held as sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription restores and regulates the womanly functions, abolishes pain and builds up and puts the finishing touch of health on every weak woman who gives it a fair trial.

It Makes Weak Women Strong, Sick Women Well.

"IN A BAD WAY."

Many a Jackson Reader Will Feel Grateful for the Information

When your back gives out? Becomes lame, weak or aching; When urinary troubles set in, Your kidneys are "in a bad way." Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you. Here is good evidence to prove it.

D. B. Dougherty, dealer in groceries and provisions, 334 Second St., Stockton, Cal., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills gave entire satisfaction in my case and consequently I do not hesitate to endorse them. Nine years ago I began to suffer from pains throughout my body. My kidneys were disordered, the secretions being distressing in passage and my back was so lame and painful that I could not get up from a chair without using my hands as a support. When suffering in that way, I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills and they went directly to the root of my trouble, restoring me to good health. I was examined by a physician not long ago and was told that there was no symptom of fault with my kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills deserve all the credit for my present good health."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Fake Races Gets Suckers' Coin.

San Francisco.—It has been established beyond peradventure of doubt that a gang of swindlers, operating along lines similar to those used by notorious Maybray gang, are working in San Francisco. Within the past two week a number of strangers have reported to the police that they have been fleeced out of sums ranging from $100 to $2000 on fake "wire-tapping and "fixed horse races.

The latest victim was Loraid Abel of Lander, Wyo., who yesterday put up $80 in cash and a certified check for $1700 on a race on which the "steerer" assured Abel that the "steerer's" friends had advance information on the outcome. Abel was approached on the street and he readily accompanied the man to an office on Market street. Owing to police interference Abel saved his check of $1700, although he is out the cash he put up.

Every family and especially those who reside in the country should be provided at all times with a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment. There is no telling when it may be wanted in case of accident or emergency. It is most excellent in all cases of rheumatism, sprains and bruises. Sold by all dealers.

River Jordan to be Used to Develop Power.

Jerusalem.—A venture for supplying the whole of Palestine with electricity for lighting, heating and cooking purposes is being entered upon by a French company, which has its headquarters in Paris. Power will be supplied by the fall of the Jordan between the Waters of Meron and the lake of Galilee, where the river descends 700 feet. The generating plant will be erected on the west bank of the river, and it will be connected with all the chief towns of the country. Some $2,500,000 will be required for the initial expenses. It is hoped that in five years the work will be paying well.

"Suffered day and night the torment of itching piles. Nothing heled me until I used Doan's Ointment. It cured me permanently."—Hon. John R. Garrett, Mayor, Giard, Ala.

Scientist Tries to Prove Darwin's Theory

Philadelphia.—Dr. Edward Tyson Reichert, investigator and professor of psychology at the University of Pennsylvania has published his observations made in a series of experiments with blood crystals of animals and men, and has, he believes, a strong argument in favor of the Darwin theory of evolution.

His conclusions are based on a study of 2500 photomicrographic negatives. These negatives were obtained from the blood of virtually every species of animal.

Evolution observed from chemical standpoint is so vast in its possibilities that it will require the combined efforts of a hundred investigators working incessantly for several generations to complete the task, according to Dr. Reichert.

Not only will the experiments have an important bearing on the evolutionary theory, but the ability to distinguish by comparison of crystals between the different types of man will be of immense importance in the examination of blood in murder trials. By Dr. Reichert's method it is possible to establish definitely whether the blood is of man or animal, and to say with a degree of positiveness whether it is the blood of a negro or a white person.

Counterfeit Coins In Circulation.

Los Angeles—Counterfeit silver money believed to amount to thousands of dollars is in circulation here. Half and quarter dollars by the hundreds have been turned in by conductors on all the trolley lines, and the officers have observed that whenever the fare collectors took in the spurious coin in any particular section of the city, storekeepers there have also been victimized, indicating systematic operations by experts. When the town had been literally flooded with the worthless money, the smaller places were worked, and the interban trainmen began taking in the imitations, which are the best ever seen here.

Bulletins of warning have been issued by the railway officials, detectives placed on cars and the secret service operatives notified in vain. The bogus stream continues flowing in. The police believe they have traced the crooks to the Emeryville race track, where similar coins have been foisted on patrons of the racing game. The counterfeiters are supposed to have had quarters there.

Lion Fondles A Child

In Pittsburg a savage lion fondled the hand that a child thrust into his cage. Danger to a child is sometimes great when least regarded. Often it comes through colds, croup, and whooping cough. They slay thousands that Dr. King's New Discovery could have saved. "A few doses cured our baby of a very bad case of croup," writes Mrs George B. Davis, of Flat Rock, N. C. "We always give it to him when he takes cold. It is a wonderful medicine for babies." Best for coughs, colds, la-grippe, asthma, hemorrhages, weak lungs. 50c. $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guarantee by Spagnoli's drug store.

Sutter Creek Defeats Ione Base Ball Team

Sutter Creek defeated Ione last Sunday at a game of ball played on the Sutter Creek grounds, by a score of 13 to 11. The Sutter boys played a snappy game, and deserve the game by reason of clean ball playing.

Sutter Creek is doing some great playing, and will no doubt give Jackson a lively game at their next meet, at the Italian picnic.

Jackson's band gave their regular Saturday evening concert, notwithstanding the fact that their leader was absent. The members turned out in full, and a big program was rendered in a most delightful manner.

SHOT IS FATAL TO VICTIM

Thomas Laird Says Joking with Him Caused Him to Do Act

Thomas Laird, who was shot by John Whitford on Thursday morning of last week, died at the Sierra Hospital, Sonoma on last Monday from the shock following the amputation of the right leg just above the knee, which took place Monday morning. Ever since the shooting it had been the opinion of the physicians that amputation would have to be resorted to, but every effort was made to avoid the ordeal, owing to the condition of the patient. A gangrenous condition ensued and as the only chance was by operation, it was performed Monday morning. Laird never rallied and death ensued the same evening.

The Jamestown Magnet has the following version of how the trouble originated: "The unfortunate occurrence was the result of ill directed 'joshing' and nagging of Whitford by Laird and other fellow workmen. Whitford and his wife were staying at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Charles Metzger. Laird was also a boarder at the same place. Whitford became jealous of Laird over alleged attentions to Mrs. Whitford, and on Wednesday evening he expostulated with Laird. The interview ended with Laird slapping Whitford and kicking him in the stomach, it is alleged. Whitford procured a shotgun and would have shot Laird at the time had he not been prevented. He evidently brooded over his supposed wrongs, procured a rifle and rented a room in the Dentone Hotel, just across the street from his own home, and Thursday morning waited for Laird to appear. Laird had just finished his breakfast and was on his way to his work at the Dutch mine, when Whitford rested his rifle across the window sill and fired, with the effect above stated.

The inquest was held Wednesday, and the jury brought in a verdict that deceased came to his death through a gunshot wound in the lower limbs inflicted by John Whitford at Quartz Mountain on May 12, and that he died on May 16, 1910.

The body was brought to this place Tuesday, accompanied by his son, Wm.

Laird of Stanford University, a brother, Wm. Laird of Contra Costa county, and two sisters, Mrs. Mose Arendt of Jamestown and Mrs. John Kenny of Columbia and their families. The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Odds Fellows hall, under the direction of Angels parlor, N. S. G. W., and Court Sequoia, F. of A., in which lodges he was an active and prominent member. The interment was in the Altaville cemetery. Mr. Laird was a native of California, aged 53 years and 3 months, and had passed most of his life in this town, where he has many friends who regret his untimely end.—Angels Record.
